Treatment Agreement

Restoration offers the following counseling related services: Individual, Pre-marital, Marital, Family and Group Counseling. The counselor and the client(s) will mutually decide which specific service is best suited for each person as service needs are assessed throughout the course of counseling. Counselors may recommend that the client also attend an educational class or specialized small group in conjunction with counseling through Restoration or other agencies.

I, _____, the undersigned, have received, read and understood the information contained in this Treatment Agreement. By my signature below, I voluntarily agree to receive counseling services with Lee Long, MA, LPC.

1. I have rights as a client of counseling services, and have received and read a description of my rights contained on the "Information for Clients" sheet. I may obtain additional information regarding rights from the Texas Department of Health Services if I so desire.
2. I understand I will be participating in the development of my treatment.
3. I understand my active participation is crucial to the outcome of counseling services received; I also understand that a favorable outcome is not guaranteed.

Information for Clients

Philosophy of Counseling

The philosophy of counseling used in this office is based on the following two principles: 1) We strive to maintain the highest clinical and ethical standards, and 2) We seek to maintain Biblical integrity in our approach to therapy. While recognizing that the client’s belief system may differ from the counselor’s, there is still a commitment to recommending principles compatible with the Christian faith.

Confidentiality

All communication is confidential and your permission is necessary to release any information to outside persons except for the limitations required by the laws of the state of Texas. Exceptions to confidentiality may include (a) reasonable suspicion of incidents of child abuse or neglect, (b) incidents of elder abuse, (c) a determination that you are a danger to yourself or others, (d) collaborating with associates within this counseling group, (e) a request from you in writing, directing the counselor to give a specified individual or agency information, (f) the counselor is ordered by a court to disclose information or (g) in the event that your counselor is out of town and or otherwise unavailable and another professional is providing emergency care for his/her clients, then it is understood that this professional may need access to client files.

By signing below you are indicating that you have read and understood this statement and that questions about this statement have been answered to your satisfaction.

Termination of Services

Failure to appear for two consecutive appointments will forfeit the client’s time slot and the client must call to reschedule if they wish to continue counseling.

Failure to appear for appointments on a consistent basis may result in termination of counseling services by the counselor:
